Dear Willis:

I have enclosed a Xerox copy of the CIA Computer Study Panel Report with the four classified tables removed. Mr. May has received telephonic concurrence on the final draft from all Panel members. He believes that all changes of significance have now been incorporated. Please sign the bottom of this letter in the space provided to signify your formal concurrence, and return a copy of it to me by overnight mail. My home address is:

I hope that you are able to attend the briefing on the report that Mr. May will give to Mr. McHahon,  and Mr. Fitzwater. As I mentioned in our telephone conversation, it will be on 26 February 1985 between 1400 and 1500 hours in Rm. 7D64. Please call me if I may be of assistance in any way.

Sincerely,

Executive Secretary
CIA Computer Study Panel

I concur with the panel's final report, however,
I am a little disappointed
my inputs were not that useful.
